Belgian Balloonist Says He Made Safe Landing

Admits Guide Rope Broke, but Insists Accident Was 24 Hours After Flight

GENEVA, Aug. 18 (By The Association ated Press).-Lieutenant Ernest de Muyter, pilot of the Belgian balloon Belgica in the Gordon Bennett cup ports concerning his landing at nitza, Rumania, are incorrect. These reports have indicated that while De Muyter was trying to take the balloon from the forest where it landed near Ocnitza, a guide rope broke and the balloon without an occupant floated away, but the balloonist asserts that the Belgica escaped twenty-four hours after he made his landing and that he has witnesses to verify this.

If Lieutenant de Muyter's account is accepted officially he will be declared the winner of the race. Captain H. E. Honeywell, one of the American entrants, will be second; Maurice Bienaime, France, will be third; Major Oscar Westover, United States, will be classed with Captain Armbruster, Swittwelfth or thirteenth, depending upon the report of Georges Cormier, of France. The exact distances of the flights have not yet been made known officially.

Cyril, Claimant to Russian

Throne, Appoints Ambassador BUDAPEST, Aug. 18 .- Grand Duke

Duke Vladimir, who recently declared himself the guardian of the Russian throne, has appointed Duke Golitzine-Mourvaline as his personal representative to all governments.

Duke Golitzine, who is a refugee in Hungary, said to-day that if the former Czar of Russia and the members of the imperial family were dead, then Grand Duke Cyril was the next in succession, and that the National Assemblies of Russia had a right to designate a successor to the throne.
